BREED THEATRE

Babbling Tongues, a Sensational Film Masterpiece, Feature for Today and

The feature screen production at the Breed theatre today is Babbling Tongues, a production of unusual merit and appeal. The story is one dealing with the trials and vicissitudes brought about by kiconsiderate re-marks and actions of people, not exscily malicious, yet so poignant in their effect that it brings death to a noble and kind man, the destruction of the peace of others who were en-tited by their inherent virtues to the happiness which is the reward of righteousness. Then, being whipped and scourged by exil tongues out from the shelter of society, the victims find happiness and peace in each other's arms, conscious of all-sufficients cy of a pure love, tried as by fire.
